FATBOY IN THE FOREST

THE SB HERO HEADLINES OUR FOREST PARTY RETURN TONIGHT

Insert cliché article introduction: We've come a long, long way together, through the bad times and the good. Now, we wouldn't be throwing those famous lyrics around willy nilly if they weren't so damn relevant. The last two years have been incredibly tough for everyone in all sorts of ways, and at times it felt like the joy of communal gathering, of song, dance and wild jubilation, might never return. There were times when the idea of gathering in a wooded clearing to go bonkers to music would simply never happen again. Well, Snowbombers, it's back tonight! The Forest Party is BACK and it's only Fatboy Slim headlining - we need to praise this as we should...

Wander into an enchanted clearing amongst the alpine forest as a pounding, first-class sound system draws you through the fir trees. It's time to party amongst the pines and witness our headliners take to the sensational Forest Stage to heat up Snowbombing like no other venue can, to put it simply. In previous years, the likes of Liam Gallagher, Chase & Status and Pendulum have provided the soundtrack in this spectacular setting. It's a stage like no other, in a place like no other - a captivating live music experience at the base of the mountains, an unequalled and unforgettable must-do venue. Tonight, it's time to welcome back Fatboy to the place amongst the pines. Although he's a dab hand at SB, FBS hasn't played this venue since 2010 (whisper it, TWELVE YEARS AGO) and has since found his form inside The Racket Club. Tonight he's back in The Forest, and you should be planning out your bee-line to the woods right now to ensure you get the best possible spot in time.

Joining Fatboy tonight is champion crooner John Newman. After finding fame after delivering the unmistakable lead vocals on Rudimental's 2012 global smash hit 'Feel the Love', the singer has since forged an impressive solo career as a standalone performer. He's sure to bring a classy vibe to proceedings. Chuck in Kiss FM's superb DJ duo, The Dixon Brothers, and you have one hell of an opening Forest Party at SB22. This is simply not to be missed, Snowbombers. What's your weapon of choice?

Of all the many insane venues that we're blessed with at Snowbombing, it's this one that really makes you feel alive. It's the mixture of alpine air and stunning pine trees, of world-class acts performing on a wooden stage in the heart of the mountains. Simply put, it's different. We ask many things of you across this mammoth week, but if you do one thing then please make it down and show some form as the Snowbombing Forest Party returns after three long years. Remember what they say: if you go down to the woods today, then go again the next day!

GO HARDER WITH CARDER

KETTAMA, SHERELLE, JAY CARDER, LOGIC1000 & MANY MORE MAKE UP A SERIOUS BRÜCK OUT IN THE BRÜCK TONIGHT

We're not even kidding this time - ALL roads lead to the Brück'n Stadl tonight for perhaps our favourite lineup of the whole week. Sherelle is leading a new generation of high-speed ravers who are addicted to jungle, drum 'n' bass, footwork and juke, and we've been trying to get her on the bill for years now. We're delighted she's finally landing amongst the mountains, alongside the Irish whizzkid, KETTAMA, perhaps house's brightest talent. SB favourite, Jay Carder, is the dictionary definition of a reliable DJ, so make sure you're in place in our very own alpine Berghain as she takes to the decks.

As if this lineup of killer talent could get ANY bigger, we're gassed to be welcoming Logic1000 to SB for the very first time. Logic1000 is the moniker of reclusive Sydney born, London based producer Samantha Poulter. Her unique production process conjures concepts, genres, samples, UK-centric dance rhythms, hyper-accurate digital synths and disembodied textures - AKA perfect for a late night dance in the Brück. This one ain't to be missed, Snowbombers. Join us uptown after The Forest Party, if you know what's good for you!

IT'S TIME TO GET GRITTY WITH GORGON CITY!

THE HOUSE HEROES ARE DROPPING AN UBER SPECIAL VIBEZ SET AT ROMPA'S REGGAE SHACK ON THE MOUNTAIN TODAY

It's reggae, it's sweet, it's at 6,000 feet! Rompa's Reggae Shack has become a cherished part of the Snowbombing experience over the last few years as festival mainstay, Rompa, brings a sackful of reggae 7 inches, a bagful of horns and whistles a crate of rum, and legions of DJ mates to send waves of vibes across the mountains from its HQ, Eisberghütte, located at the top of the Horberg lift.

We had an awesome few days pon de shack as a veritable smorgasbord of talent has graced the decks. Bez, Doorly, Mr Motivator, Dub Pistols, Shadow Child and many more have done their thing on the Horberg lift, as legions of Snowbombers have skanked under the spring sun with a rum on the go. We genuinely can't suggest anywhere better for your daytime shenanigans than the Shack, so head up the Horberg today and make sure you make it to Gorgon City's super rare jungle set, from 15:30.

Joining them in the Shack is the hero that is Danny Rankin, aka Decoy from Kurupt FM. A skilled DJ in his own right, Rankin is no stranger to a bassy selection, so expect a set of tunes that would honour his Rasta heritage (isn't that right Decoy). Evenstash and Soosee Cue make up the lineup of legends set to hit the Shack today. We might throw around the word 'unmissable' with careless abandon, but this one seriously is. See you there to grab a rum, soak up the rays and let the good times roll.

AND THE LORD SAID: LET THERE BE HOUSE

CLUBBING LEGENDS DEFECTED RECORDS RETURN TO THE RACKET CLUB TONIGHT WITH ONE HELL OF A LINEUP!

One word. Defected. Two words. Defected Party. Six words. Defected Party in The Racket Club tonight! Yes, indeed, the house superlabel that not only got us through lockdown but patently made us boogie straight through it have landed in the 'hof to take over The Racket Club once again. Expect more 4x4 than a Jeep showroom, loads of fist pumping and enough smiles to land a world record. This is Defected and this is the house that God built!

Making the party happen tonight are four total SB legends. If you cut them, they bleed Snowbombing, basically. Just who is it inside the mystery machine marked for Mayrhofen? Enter the rotund renegade Eats Everything, house heroes Gorgon City, Defected mainstay Sam Divine and ex Radio 1 legend and current Dulwich Hamlet women's superstar, Monki. Seriously, we couldn't come up with a better set of house heroes if we tried. See you down The Racket for night four, and this time bringing your shuffling sneakers.

TONIGHT!!

Our ribs are aching, and we're sure yours are too? Was it actually that quite a serious fall on the Harakiri? No. Was it when we got a bit too near to a crowd barrier in The Racket Club? No (well, yes but it doesn't work to say that for this joke). Was it when Motivator gave us a more than playful dig in the side after yesterday's mountain warm down? No. It was from bursting our sides with damn laughter at Altitude, the daily comedy show that's turning out to be one of the big hits of SB22. Joining us?

Taking place each night in The Arena, Snowbombing's late-night den of dirty dancing and even dirtier laughs, Altitude, is set to bring a host of comedians to the stage each night between 5pm - 7pm. Think of it as your perfect après wind down after a bruising day on the slopes. What better to ease your way into the evening than a great big belly laugh?

Tonight sees a guy, who's well versed in all things Snowbombing, take to the stage: ladies and gentlemen, welcome to the world of Ireland's finest hip-hop musical comedian, Rob Broderick, a.k.a. Abandoman. Using his trademark blend of audience interaction and razor-sharp improvisation, Abandoman will take you on a magical journey, transforming the audience's likes, loathes and daydreams into hit songs and captivating tales.

Acclaimed MC, Gareth Waugh, will be on hosting duties, whilst Ryan Cullen and Elliott Steel join the party. Get down there early and get a spot (SB tip: maybe not too close to the stage though...)

Head to the Arena from 5pm tonight!

SINKEN DAT PINKEN!

THE DRAG TROUPE
MEGASTARS PLAY THEIR LAST EVER SHOW TONIGHT AT SNOWBOMBING

Well, well, well... As if it couldn't get any more fabulous, eh? Tonight, once the comedy clears out in The Arena, it's time to welcome the very last European performance from the UK's largest LGBTQ+ collective and club night in the UK. Continuously challenging the status quo around night-life culture and celebrating freedom of self expression - it could only be Sink The Pink. After their jaw-dropping SB debut back in 2019, the STP crew have chosen The Arena as their last ever European hurrah before they head back to the UK to finish things for good. Like we said, this is simply unmissable, babes.

What a lineup of selectors awaits you too: Arielle Free, Tete Bang, Joan Oh and some STP residents are all ready and waiting to make this party go with a bang.

Founded in 2008, Sink The Pink began as a response to 'too many bland and non-inclusive nights out'. Growing from humble beginnings in a working mens club in East London, Sink The Pink now tour the world with their legendary parties, live performances and immersive productions. Their dedication to diversity, creativity and joy has attracted communities and audiences from across the globe. Sink The Pink is a melting pot of drag artists, club kids, performers, decorated choreographers, creatives and acclaimed set and costume designers. Inspired by theatre, dance, punk, pop culture and fashion, they are the antidote to the new wave of soulless mega-clubs. Join them tonight for their last European hurrah EVER.

HANS' TOP TIPS

HELPING YOU GET THE VERY BEST OUT OF SNOWBOMBING 2022 WITH HIS CHOICE CUTS OF INFO!

Greetings my kleiner clubbing friends!

My name is Hans, I live here in Snowbombing HQ, in 'the 'hof', and know the place like the back of my hand.

Those crazy Snowbombing people have asked me to give you more of my top tips for surviving the greatest show on snow (since Franz Klammer's stag do) and saving the Euros, so you can send them to Ireland or Portugal where they need them more than you, ha! English humour, eh?

TIP 07 PLAN YOUR PANDEMONIUM

Zere is sooo much going on at Snowbombing, so prioritise your partying - and get zere early so you can be sure to get in (as some venues reach capacity and operate a 'one in; one out' system). Finally - always check our app for any programme changes.

TIP 08: BUST THAT Q!

My next Über tip is how to avoid the Penken lift queue in the morning... simply stay in bed 'til lunchtime!!! Ha - English humour! No but seriously, kinderlings; just jump on any free ski bus with HORBERGBAHN written on the side. This will take you to a super little cable car with no queues, and in which you can sit down all the way to the top with your schätzli as you glide silently through the forest - and what's more, it'll take you straight to the middle of the ski area, avoiding the congestion at the top of the Penken; fantastisch, ya?

NAMASTE IN BED, NO YOU'RE NOT!

MOUNTAINTOP YOGA IS BACK AT IT AGAIN WITH A BREATHWORK SPECIAL TODAY AT 11AM

Zen out every morning with our mountaintop yoga sessions at the stunning Penken Terrace, which can be found just at the top of the Penken lift. There's nothing that can't fix a groggy head and get you ready for a day of piste bashing than a spot of morning yoga!

Our sessions are hosted by globe-seekers and Sangha. Sangha, meaning 'community', was created by five friends from across the world who founded a yoga centre right here in Mayrhofen. Join them every morning for a yoga journey through the elements as you explore water flows, fire flows and detox classes over the course of the week. So, break out your best king dancer pose with panoramic views of the Alps and ease up those joints for a day on the slopes.

Today sees the group focus on breathwork flow, something that we know everyone would appreciate on day four of a festival. Get your body lithe and take in the stunning panoramic views of the Tyrolean mountains whilst doing so. Namaste!

JOIN THE RIDE & SEEK COMPS!

Wednesday saw us finally back in the world renowned Penkenpark for the Ride & Seek Pro Comp after our two year hiatus, and what a way to kick things off! We were blessed with perfect weather conditions for our assembled pro riders to show off their talents to a packed Grillhofalm crowd. Olympic medalist and Snowbombing favourite, Billy Morgan, was throwing hammers with his huge backflips over the specially constructed course. Local legend Tom Tramnitz was the standout rider of the day and did enough to win the much desired first prize. With tunes provided by Lens and My Nu Leng, we stayed up until the lifties begged us to head down the mountain. Join us today as we have the infamous Ride & Seek banked slalom contest. Eager Snowbombers who have the confidence to launch themselves down the slalom slope are welcome to join, all abilities of skiers and snowboarders are encouraged! Registration is at the Red Bull tent up until 12pm.
